INTRODUCTION

The list of fisheries includes the number and name of the fishery, the user of the fishery or organization responsible for its management, the respective length in kilometres (stream) and the area in hectares, as well as defining the borders and position of the fishery (moreover, using GPS coordinates), or a more detailed specification of the water areas belonging to the fishery, and the designation of protected fish areas. Each holder of a fishing permit is obliged to get acquainted with the description of the fishery, where he/she intends to fish before actually starting fishing.

The Fishing Regulations and Register of Fisheries correspond to status of October 1. 2016. Eventual subsequent changes are not included.

Designation of suitable fisheries for disabled anglers

Since 2012, the wheelchair symbol  is newly found in some fisheries. This symbol indicates that in the fishery there are good places suitable for fishing of disabled anglers. These places are directly in the relevant fishery marked with boards with the wheelchair symbol and words "MÍSTO VHODNÉ PRO HANDI-CAPOVANÉ RYBÁŘE" (Place suitable for handicapped Anglers). However, this is not a place reservation, only information saying the place is good for fishing carried out by physically handicapped persons due to its character, the possibility of access, arrival and parking. If an angler on a wheelchair arrives to such a marked place and the place is already occupied by another angler, he/she can only ask him to make room for him/her (as a matter of decency). The place can not be claimed with reference to the label in the Register of Fisheries, website information or board itself.

In case of the fisheries marked with the wheelchair symbol you can find out more information on the website www.rybsvaz.cz

I. Allowed techniques of rod angling

A. Ledgering, float fishing

1. Ledgering, float fishing in non-salmonid fisheries

When ledgering or float fishing, maximum of 2 rods may be used. When ledgering, the movement of the bait is not actively influenced by the angler. When float fishing, the movement of the bait may be actively influenced by the angler. When angling you may use maximum of two tips with single hooks or one tip with a double or triple hook. When animal bait is used multi hooks systems with maximum of 3 hooks may be used (single, double or triple hooks). Live bait fish is used in the period between 16 June and 31 December only. Salmonid species, eel, protected species of fish and fish which do not reach the minimum length cannot be used as the live bait fish. While angling the persons shall keep the minimum distance of 3 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

2. Ledgering, float fishing in salmonid fisheries

When ledgering or float fishing, maximum of 2 rods may be used. When ledgering, the movement of the bait is not actively influenced by the angler. When float fishing, the movement of the bait may be actively influenced by the angler. When angling, you may use maximum of two tips with single hooks. Bait may be of ve

B. Spin fishing

1. A. Spin fishing in non-salmonid fisheries

When spin fishing, only one angling rod may be used, which is held in the hand; another rod must not be set. Bait is actively driven through the water environment. Spin fishing is carried out using 1 piece of artificial or natural bait. The bait consists of maximum of 3 hooks (single, double or triple hooks). Artificial fly fishing is also considered as spin fishing, if the bait is equipped with a device like rotating metal or a little propeller, which increases its attraction for the fish while moving. While angling the persons shall keep the minimum distance of 20 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

1. B. Trolling in non-salmonid fisheries

Trolling is angling from a moving boat with one rod only; 1 piece of bait is pulled in any water depth, another rod must not be set up. Artificial or natural bait may be used. The bait consists of maximum of 3 hooks (single, double or triple hooks). Special attention must be paid when angling this way, so that health, life or possessions of other people were not endangered.

2. Spin fishing in salmonid fisheries

Spin fishing is angling with one rod only; the rod is held in the hand, another rod must not be set. Bait is actively driven through the water environment. Spin fishing is carried out using 1 piece of artificial bait, which is provided with 1 hook (single, double or triple hook). Artificial fly fishing is also considered as spin fishing, if the bait is equipped with a device like rotating metal or a little propeller, which increases its attraction for the fish. While angling the persons shall keep the minimum distance of 20 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

C. Angling with an artificial fly

1. Angling with an artificial fly in non-salmonid and salmonid fisheries

When angling with an artificial fly, one rod only may be used, which is held in the hand, another rod must not be set. Maximum of three tips with one single hook only are on the rod. Bait is cast with the help of a fly fishing line or a nylon one; floating is ensured by a ball or other float, or another weight. Under “artificial fly”, is understood a bait imitating an insect or other organisms. The bait must not be equipped with devices such as rotating metal or a little propeller, which increase attraction for fish. While angling the persons shall keep the minimum distance of 20 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

D. Fly fishing

1. Fly fishing in non-salmonid fisheries

Fly fishing is angling with one rod only, which is held in the hand, another rod must not be set. When fishing you may use maximum of two tips with single hooks or one tip with a double or triple hook. The bait is cast with a fly fishing line or nylon and floating is ensured by a ball or other float, or another weight. Live or dead insects may be used as bait as well. The bait must not be equipped with a device like rotating metal or a little propeller to increase the attraction for fish. While angling the persons shall keep the minimum distance of 20 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

E. Catching into stake nets

1. Catching into stake nets in non-salmonid fisheries

Concerned is angling of live fish with a horizontal net with the maximum area of 1 m². Catching into stake nets is not combined with angling presented in parts A, B, C or D. While angling the persons keep the minimum distance of 3 m between each other, unless they agree on a shorter distance.

II. Allowed means of angling

2. Lures, angling boats, inflatable floating tools for angling, echo sounder, landing net, stake net, net with supporting circles, gauge, rod forks or holders, bite indicators, floats, weights, slings and other means. The use of these means is specified by the user of the fishery in the detailed conditions for the Act on Fishery performance.

Angling from vessels and their use for placing baits is prohibited. Fisheries or parts thereof where fishing from vessels and placing baits is permitted are determined by the user of fishery and in the description of the fishery is given: Fishing from vessels allowed (this applies to placing baits as well). The angler angling from a vessel must not have another rod set outside the vessel.

VI. Buoy fishing

Buoy angling means angling of predatory species with an approved floating device (buoy hereinafter). The purpose of a buoy is to keep the bait on the desired place and in the selected depth.

A buoy or a buoy with supporting buoy may be used, none of which may exceed the maximum dimensions of 15x15x30 cm. The connection of the buoy and supporting buoy must ensure disconnecting after the strike; the supporting buoy must not be a part of the rod during the struggle with the fish. When finishing angling, the supporting buoy must be pulled out of water.

In case of using two buoys which are firmly connected the maximum dimensions allowed are 10x10x10 cm. Their maximum distance may be up to 150 cm.

Untreated polystyrene and untreated plastics (incl. PET bottles) must not be used as buoys. The positioning of the buoys must leave at least the inner third of the water area free for navigation, unless otherwise specified.

VII. Conduct when angling

After arrival to the place of angling, the angling person will make the inspection of the place, where he/she wants to fish. If the place is littered, the angler will clean it before the start of angling. The angling person is obligated to keep the place clean and after finishing angling clean the potential rubbish again. It is forbidden to leave any waste on the bank or to throw it into water. As an especially rough misconduct will be considered, if the angling person handles with glass waste in this way.

It is prohibited to use floating and other items to mark feeding places, except the rod buoys, which cannot be fixed to the bottom and after the angling is completed, they must be taken from water. The positioning of the rod buoys must leave at least the inner third of the water area free for navigation, unless otherwise specified

Children up to 10 years of age can handle 1 rod of an angling person who is older than 18 years; in such a case they must be accompanied by this angler.

VIII. Handling the catch

When taking a fish out of water, the angling person is obliged to handle the fish carefully. Fish, which are released back into water, must be freed from the hook without delay and in water, if possible. If a hook is deep in the throat of a fish, it is necessary to cut the hook off. As a rough violation of this rule will be considered lifting the fish up onto the bank and its insensitive release.

Fish is killed by a daze caused by a strong stroke with a blunt object on the crown of the head and cutting gill arches or cutting the spinal cord and blood vessels immediately behind the head. If the angling person kills the caught fish, cleans it and removes entrails, these must not be thrown back into water or left on the place.

IX. Keeping the catches

If the angling person keeps the catch alive, he/she is obliged to have his/her own net or such a device, which allows at least a minimum movement (containers, constructions covered with net etc.). It is prohibited to fix a fish by threading the rope through the gill or another insensitive way or to leave live fish to die. A fish placed in the net etc. is considered as the kept fish. It is prohibited to use mutual device to keep the catch.

If the fish is kept in the containers or other devices for keeping fish after finishing of angling, the angler is obliged to tag the net or another device for keeping fish with a label containing his/her name and address.

X. Other Provisions

The individual provisions of the Fishing Regulations are considered as the detailed conditions for the performance of fishing rights in the fisheries of the ČRS in compliance with provision of Article 13 paragraph 9 of Act No. 99/2004 Coll.

The fishery user is authorized to reserve places for angling for the time necessary

Methodical Instructions and Information

METHODICAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECORDING OF ATTENDANCE AND CATCHES INTO THE RECORD IN PART II OF THE FISHING PERMIT

Record of Fishing and Catches (Part II of the fishing permit)

Before starting angling, the angler is obliged to record the date and fishery number into the Record of Fishing and Catches in an indelible way.

The number of the fishery listed in the Register of Fisheries (six or eight figure code) is entered into the column Fishery number (Locality No.). If the angler is fishing in a subfishery described by a fixed number, he/she must, in addition to the fishery number, fill in the number of this subfishery into the Subfishery (Local Part) column.

In case of fishing in a fishery and a subfishery on the same day, the angler must record his attendance in both the fishery and subfishery in two separate lines.

If case of interrupting and continuing fishing in the same fishery on the same day, it is not necessary to record the attendance (i.e. the date and fishery number) again.

If the angler does not keep any fish caught in the fishery on the calendar day recorded, he/she is obliged to cross through the corresponding line in the Part II of the angling permit (Record of Fishing and Catches) horizontally in an indelible way, before starting fishing in another fishery or on the next day at the latest.

Example:

Fishery No. 411 042 Kourimka 1

The angler did not catch any fish in the fishery, so he moved to its subfishery – the reservoir No. 2 Poboří, where he caught a carp (45 cm, 2.2 kg). In the Record of Fishing and Catches his activities will be recorded in the following way:

Date	Fishery No. (Locality No.)	Subfishery (Local Part)	Species	Number	Weight kg	Length cm
20. 6.	411 042	_____				_____
20. 6.	411 042	2	carp	1	2.2	45

Summary of Catches and Attendance (Part II of the fishing permit)

The holder of the fishing permit is obliged to fill in the Summary of Catches and Attendance before handing back his fishing permit.

The sums of all catches achieved in the individual fisheries and subfisheries and the number attendances are filled into the individual lines.

If the holder of the fishing permit did not catch any fish in a subfishery he was fishing in, he/she must still record it stating the number of attendances.

The blank lines in Part II of the fishing permit (Record of Fishing and Catches and Summary of Catches and Attendance) must be crossed out in an indelible way after expiring of the fishing permit. The lines need not be crossed out individually

The holder is obliged to return the filled in permit within 15 days after its expiring to the organization, which issued it.

Example:

The angler was fishing in the fishery No. 411 042 Kouřimka 1 in its subfisheries No. 2 – Poboří, No. 3 – Pečky, in the fishery No. 401 017 Vltava 5 and in the fishery No. 481 501 ÚN Orlík. The Summary of Catches and Attendance will be filled in in the following way:

Fishery		Subfishery No.	1 carp			Number of attendances
No.	Name		No.	kg	No.	kg
411 042	Kouřimka 1		4	8			5
411 042	Kouřimka 1	2	3	10			6
411 042	Kouřimka 1	3	1	2.2			2
401 017	Vltava 5						3
481 501	ÚN Orlík		2	4.8			4
TOTAL			10	25			20

How to proceed in case of filling all the lines in Part II of the fishing permit (Record of Fishing and Catches)

If the holder of the fishing permit fills all the lines in the Record of Fishing and Catches (Part II of the fishing permit), he/she can get a new form free of charge at the relevant LO CRS, which issued his/her fishing permit.

This new form must be marked and filled in to enable its clear association with the originally issued fishing permit, which means filling in all the data from the Part I of the original fishing permit (the time of validity, name, surname and title of the holder, the date of birth, place of residence, membership in a LO CRS) and filling the number of the original fishing permit in the place for the permit sticker. Write down the number of the fishing permit from the sticker of the original fishing permit with a remark it is an appendix. Example: Appendix No. 1 to the fishing permit No. 82111 12 00001.
